

Writing in support of amateur allocation in the 5 Mhz. band, but suggest 200 watt ERP limit to assure no interference to other services. I believe this is an important band to amateur propagation needs during emergency and other periods of time. It also serves to unload a lot of evening congestion on the 80 & 40 meter bands.